Slight Unpleasantness between Sen ators Sherman and Tipton-The Balary-Grab Question the Cause. Senators Sherman and Tipton had a little inpleasantness in the Senate to-day during the discussion of the salary-grab question, growing out of the Nebraska senator reading part of a granger's speech, in which the dead body of Nathaniel allusion was made to Sherman as a millionaire though he came into the Senate a poor man ! The Ohio senator denounced Tipton's > sertion as grossly false. The little excitement ended as such episodes generally do, in a very Pickwickian way, Mr. Tipton disclaiming any personal discourtesy; and Sherman, on the strength thereof, subsiding into his customary senatorial dignity.

The Chief-Justiceship.

The request from Williams that his nomination to the chief-justiceship be withdrawn from the Senate was entirely unexpected, as it is only twenty-four hours since he announced his determination to make a fight with the secators who were opposing him. The President would not have withdrawn the nomination except at his request.

The friends of Williams to-day express solute confidence that he would have been confirmed had his nomination reached the Senate from the committee, where all the difficulty was originated. Speculation is rife over the next nomination to the high office, and is busy with all the names which were mentioned in connection with it before that of Williams was sent to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, January 8 .- Senate .- Mr. Pratt's amendment to the salary bill, compelling members to refund back pay received since March 3, 1873, was rejected by a vote of 14 to 45.

The salary bill occupied all day. During the debate, Mr. Gordon, of Georgia, said he was willing to reduce the salaries of congressmen, but he wanted a reduction made in the salaries of high officials of the army and pavy. He hoped the salary of the President would be reduced to $25,000, as under the old law. He was in favor of retrenchment, but wanted it made by millions instead of hundreds of dollars. This money should go back to the Treasury, and repeal mean something, and not a mere shadow to blind people. House .- The education bill was discussed.

Hay dull and weak, with a large supply. Highwines were steady at 95c. Cotton was steady at yeserday's rates, on the basis of 15c. for middling. Tobacco was inactive; no sales.—Times.

JANUARY 3.—Bourbon whiskeys have shown increased activity with sales of large round lots of 1871 goods, the stock of which has been thus practically exhausted. We find that the stocks of the years preceding 1873 are but little more than a third of the stock of 1872 alone twelve months ago. Prices are firm and advancing on the old crops, and are entirely steady on newer crops. Highwines are are endrey steady on newer crops. Inglantes are steady.

Baling Material.—The market has been quiet throughout the week, and prices of bagging have favored buyers. Dealers are filling orders at irregular prices, ranging from 13%@15c. for 2 and 24-pound goods, though of any size may be bought at 13@13%c. for light and heavy grades. Iron ties are held at 9@9%c.

Bags.—There is no quotable change. We quote 2-bushel seamless bags, cotion, 31@35c; 2-bushel burlaps at 13@15c.; 4-bushel burlaps, 19@20c.; gunnies in bales, 16@17c.; gunnies resewed, 17%@18kc.

Leaf Tubacco.—The sales by warehouses during the week, and the expired portion of the current month and tobacco year, are (in hogsheads) as follows:

Favor.

For some days the mild, damp weather has been auspicious for the preparation of tobacco for market, and we may expect next week to see receipts again attain large proportions. We quote as follows:

NEW CROP-SOUND ORDER. Light weight.—Lugs, $2.50@$3.50; common leaf, $4@$5; good leaf, $6.50@$5.50.

Heavy veight.—Lugs. $3@$5; common leaf, $5@$6.50; good leaf, $7.50@$5.

Beeres.—The quality of the offerings Sunday and Monday was fair, and not a few of the droves were made up exclusively of fat, matured beeves of good to extra quality. The weather was against the trade; the supply was excessively large, and after a slow, dragging trade at a decime of 26%c. Ber pound the market closed weak and unsettled; with more than 25 car-loads unsold. The best of the fancy steers were sold at 13c. $4 h., to dress 59 hs. to the gross cwt: some of the roughest stags and dry cows at less than 8c. $4 h., to dress 55 hs.; but generally the extreme range was 9612%c. $7 h. for native steers, and 8610/26. for Texans.

The failure of Mr. Stehright, wholesale slaughterer, with liabilities reported at $60,000 and assets not more than $20,000, operated to weaken the market. sets not more than $20,000, operated to weaken the market.

Milch Cows.—Receipts for the week were 61 head, against 51 last week. Nothing doing to-day, and prices remain nominally unchanged, or $40@ $80 for ordinary to choice.

Catres.—Fresh arrivals were 112 head. Buyers grumbled at the prices asked, but took the stock, and a fair business was done at 8@11c. $2.56. for milk-fed veals and at $6@$12 $20 head for grussers.

Sheep and Swine.—Receipts Sunday and Monday were 52 cars, or 9,943 head. Trade was fair at 54@74c. F.B. for ordinary to extra lots, with best selections sold at 74@74c.

Swine.—The fresh offerings amounted to 70 cars, or 9,509 hogs. The market for live hogs was dull and unsettled, and quotations were nominally at 54@54c. Oressed hogs were also dull, and were quoted at 64c. for city and 64@64c. for western.
